Bottega 'Il Vino degli Dei' 1,100
Amarone della Valpolicella Classico DOCG, Italy
Founded in 1977 near Venice, Bottega is a family-owned estate renowned for its artisanal craftsmanship and dedication to Italian winemaking heritage. The name "Il Vino degli Dei" — "Wine of the Gods" — reflects the house's commitment to elegance and intensity. Produced in the heart of Valpolicella using the traditional appassimento method, the grapes are partially dried to concentrate flavor and richness. The result is a luxurious Amarone with deep notes of dried cherry, plum, cocoa, and spice, offering a velvety texture and a lingering, noble finish.

Santi 'Santico' 990
Amarone della Valpolicella Classico DOCG, Italy
Established in 1843 in Illasi, near Verona, Santi is one of the oldest and most respected names in the Valpolicella region. The winery has long been a pioneer in refining the classic styles of Veneto, with a deep respect for tradition and terroir. The Santico Amarone represents Santi's mastery — crafted from carefully selected Corvina, Rondinella, and Molinara grapes, naturally dried before fermentation to achieve richness and complexity. The wine reveals notes of dark cherry, fig, chocolate, and sweet spice, with an elegant structure and remarkable balance that speaks to nearly two centuries of winemaking excellence.
